RENEWED PETITION
UNDER 37 CFR 1.137(b)

San Francisco, CA 94111
July 29, 2009

Mail Stop PETITIONS
Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Attention: Office of Petitions

Sir:

This Renewed Petition is filed in response to the Official Letter dated June 8, 2009, which noted that the statement that the entire delay in filing the required reply was unintentional was incomplete and required what, if any, actions Mr. Lemond took at the time of abandonment to revive the application.

Attached is the Supplemental Declaration of Kevin T. Lemond dated July 24, 2009 in which Mr. Lemond states that he does not recall why he instructed his secretary, Ms. Olivier, to refile the Amendment instead of filing the required petition to revive the application. Mr. Lemond states in the Supplemental Declaration that this instruction was an unintentional error on his part, and he reconfirms that at no time before or after this application became abandoned did he have any intent or authorization to abandon it.

37 CFR 1.137(b) provides for the revival of an abandoned application if its abandonment was unintentional. Unintentional errors include errors for which there is no explanation because the declarant cannot remember why he committed the error. Even errors that are readily recognized as such in retrospect are unintentional if it is clear that there was no intent to abandon the application on the part of anyone associated with the application either at the time the error was committed or thereafter until the error was detected. As was previously demonstrated, the applicants, Mr. Lemond or the firm of Townsend & Townsend & Crew never had any intention to abandon the application, and Townsend & Townsend & Crew filed a Petition to Revive this application on March 19, 2007 shortly after it became aware of the abandonment following the receipt of the second Notice of Abandonment dated January 25, 2007.

The Official Letter of June 8, 2009 further advised that the application does not contain the documents that were refiled on October 21, 2004 and that were repeatedly referred to in the Lemond and Olivier Declarations of record filed in connection with this Petition.

Attached hereto is a complete copy of the fax transmittal dated October 21, 2004, which contained, as listed on the Official Communication cover sheet dated 10/21/04, a copy of the Amendment that was faxed September 25, 2003, as well as supporting documentation, a request for an extension of time and copies of relevant auto-reply facsimile transmission confirmations. This attachment is identical to Exh. F referred to on page 7 of the Renewed Petition for Revival dated March 28, 2008.

The attached facsimile transmission of October 21, 2004 confirms the actions taken by Mr. Lemond, and his secretary, Lata Olivier, as set forth in their Declarations that were previously filed in connection with this Petition. The facsimile transmission and the fax transmission confirmation of October 21, 2004 from the U.S. Patent Office confirm that the previous Amendment (Exh. C attached to Renewed Petition dated March 28, 2008) was in fact received by the Patent Office. The attached facsimile transmission also reflects Mr. Lemond's erroneous belief at the time that the underlying problem was that the Patent Office did not receive the original Amendment (which was filed September 25, 2003) and that this could be resolved by resubmitting the Amendment.

Thus, all interested parties, including specifically Mr. Lemond and the firm of Townsend & Townsend & Crew, never had any intent to abandon this application. The abandonment of this application was the result of an inadvertent error and was therefore unintentional.

In view thereof, applicants request that this Petition be granted at an early date.

If the Examiner believes a telephone conference would expedite prosecution of this application, please telephone the undersigned at (415) 273-4730 (direct dial).

Respectfully submitted,

SUPPLEMENTAL DECLARATION OF
KEVIN T. LEMOND IN SUPPORT OF RENEWED PETITION FOR REVIVAL
OF UNINTENTIONALLY ABANDONED
PATENT APPLICATION

I, Kevin T. Lemond, supplement my earlier Declaration in this matter dated April 20, 2009 and further declare as follows:

I have been furnished with a copy of the official letter from the Office of Petitions dated June 8, 2009, which states that it is unclear what, if any, actions I took at the time of the abandonment to revive the application, and which requires further details with regard thereto.

I do recall that I requested my secretary, Lata Olivier, to refile the Amendment of September 25, 2003 (Exh. C) after I saw the Notice of Abandonment of June 17, 2004 (Exh. E) because, as I stated in my Declaration dated April 20, 2009, I was under the impression that the Patent Office did not receive the Amendment (Exh. C). In retrospect, it is clear that my instructions were wrong. Given the status of the application at the time, I should have filed a petition to revive instead of simply refiling the earlier Amendment. I do not recall why I gave the instruction to refile the Amendment (Exh. C) and acknowledge that it was an error unintentionally committed by me.

My error in asking Ms. Olivier to refile the Amendment, instead of filing a petition to revive, was an inadvertent error and was not the result of an intention or desire on my part not to keep the application in force and to instead abandon it.

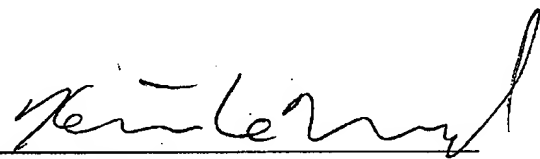

Application No. 09/403,894
Supplemental Declaration of Kevin T. Lemond in Support of Renewed Petition for Revival of Unintentionally Abandoned Patent Application

PATENT

My error notwithstanding, I never had any intention to abandon this application. I and Townsend & Townsend & Crew were at all times under instructions to maintain the application in effect, and I very specifically recall that at no time did I have any intent to act otherwise.

I declare under the penalty of perjury that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true, having been warned that willful false statements and the like are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under 18 USC §1001, and may jeopardize the validity of this application or any patent resulting therefrom.

Sir:

In response to the Final Office Action mailed April 25, 2003 on the above-referenced application, please enter the following amendments and remarks:

Amendments to the Claims are reflected in the listing of claims which begins on page 2 of this paper.

Remarks/Arguments begin on page 4 of this paper.

This listing of claims will replace all prior versions, and listings, of claims in the application:

Listing of Claims:

1 Claims 1-18 canceled.

1 19. (Previously Amended) A method of manufacturing carbon fiber coils comprising:
2 placing a solid catalyst within a reaction chamber;
3 supplying stock gas and a catalytic gas to the reaction chamber;
4 applying voltage to the solid catalyst to charge the solid catalyst; and
5 heating the interior of the chamber to grow carbon fiber coils from the stock gas, wherein an
6 exterior of the reaction chamber is substantially free of a magnetic field during the heating.

1 Claims 20-23 canceled.

1 24. (Previously presented) The method according to claim 19, wherein the voltage is a
2 DC voltage and the solid catalyst is negatively charged.

1 25. (Previously presented) The method according to claim 19, wherein the interior of
2 the chamber is heated to a temperature in the range of 700 to 830 degrees Centigrade.

1 26. (Currently Amended) An apparatus for manufacturing carbon fiber coils from a
2 stock gas, which is subjected to thermal decomposition to generate solid carbon, and a catalytic
3 gas, which promotes thermal decomposition of the stock gas, the apparatus comprising:
4 a reaction chamber, to which the stock gas and the catalytic gas are supplied
5 through a port;
6 a solid catalyst located within the reaction chamber;
7 a power source, which is external to the reaction chamber, for applying voltage to 8 the solid catalyst; [[and]]
9 a heating device for heating the interior of the reaction chamber to grow carbon
10 fiber coils from the stock gas, wherein the heating device produces substantially no magnetic
11 field in the reaction chamber;

12 wherein the catalytic gas contains at least one of sulfur compound and phosphorus
13 compound, and the sulfur compound and phosphorus compound include thiophene, hydrogen
14 sulfide, methylmercaptan, and phosphorus trichloride;

15 wherein the solid catalyst faces an outlet of the port and is spaced from the outlet by a
16 distance, and the stock gas is supplied to the reaction chamber at a certain velocity, wherein the 17 ratio of the velocity of the stock gas to the distance is in a range of 10 to 10000, wherein the 18 velocity is expressed in centimeters per minute and the distance is expressed in centimeters; and

19 wherein the catalytic gas contains at least one of sulfur compound and phosphorus
20 compound, and the sulfur compound and phosphorus compound include thiophene, hydrogen
21 sulfide, methylmercaptan, and phosphorus trichloride.

1 Please cancel claim 27.

1 28. (Currently amended) The apparatus according to claim ~~[[27]]~~ 26, wherein the stock
2 gas contains one of acetylene, methane, and propane.

1 29. (Previously presented) The apparatus according to claim 28, wherein the catalyst
2 contains microcrystalline nickel.

1 Please cancel claim 30.

1 Claim 31 canceled.

1 32. (Previously presented) The apparatus according to claim 26, wherein the reaction
2 chamber is heated to a temperature in the range of 700 to 830 degrees Centigrade.

1 Claims 33-35 canceled.

1 36. (Previously presented) The apparatus according to claim 35, wherein the power
2 source is a DC power source for negatively charging the solid catalyst.

1 Claims 37-40 canceled.

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

Claims 19, 24-26, 28-29, 32 and 36 are pending.

Applicants note with appreciation the indicated allowability of claims 19, 24-25, 29 and 31.

Claims 26-30, 32 and 36 stand rejected. Applicants respectfully request reconsideration.

In the previous amendment, applicants amended claim 26 to include the subject matter of claim 31. However, applicants neglected to include the subject matter of claim 30 (upon which claim 31 depended) and claim 27 (upon which claim 30 depended). Accordingly, applicants have amended claim 26 to include the subject matter of claims 27 and 30. It is respectfully submitted that claim 26 is now allowable as indicated by the Examiner in the office action mailed November 12, 2002. Claims 32 and 36 depend on claim 26 and therefore are also allowable for at least the reasons claim 26 is allowable.
